Local Attorney Reviews Book 'Age Of Reason'

This week a Jamestown attorney, William C. Arrison, reviews "Age of Reason" in the Post-Journal magazine section.

A native of New Jersey, Mr. Arrison was graduated from Cornell University in 1948 and from its law school in 1950. He did post graduate work at the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service in Russian language and international affairs.

A member of the New York State Bar since 1950, he was employed by the U.S. Department of Justice from 1950 to 1951 when he joined the Central Intelligence Agency. In 1958 he became associated with the local law firm of Johnson, Peterson, Tener and Anderson.

Mr. Verry, one of last week's reviewers, has been executive director of the Jamestown Boys Club since 1945. He has been in social work, physical education and recreation fields for 27 years and in community chest work for 20 years.

Mr. Verry studied at Springfield College, Boston University, Northeastern University and New York University. He has written several articles for professional journals and several chapters for books in his field.

A charter member of the National Association of Social Workers, he has been chairman of several committees for the national organization of Boys Clubs of America.

Mr. Verry, who resides at 350 Baker Street with his wife and five children, requested that his book review fee be donated to the Jamestown Area Community Chest.

Mrs. J. Parker Swanson, last week's other reviewer, is a native of Radford, Va. where she was society editor of the Radford News
